

MUSICIAN
The job title musician can encompass so many duties: composer,
See 'Top of the Valley' /16

Continued from page 15
arranger, teacher, performer, songwriter and just all around showman. And that's assuming you're willing to think of being a musician as a job in the first place. Our readers have chosen as their top musician a man who does all those things and still manages to run a Web site where other musicians can download virtual trumpet loops to enhance their own sonic landscapes. Top of the Valley; Jazz musician Rob Birdwell of The Blowholes. Honorable Mention: Folk musician Jon ten Broek and comedic songwriter Neal Gladstone.

To The Tip Top

Readers sound off in first Top of the Valley survey results.

PAGE 12